LAST MATCH VS. ORLANDO

FC Dallas' previous meeting with Orlando City SC ended in a 0-0 stalemate on Sept. 30, 2017 in Orlando City Stadium. Carlos Gruezo nearly got the visitors off to a flying start in the fourth minute, but his goal-bound shot was saved by goalkeeper Joseph Bendik acrobatically. Bendik was the hero again in the 53rd minute, when a cross found Mauro Díaz in the box but his effort was thwarted by the legs of the goalkeeper. Orlando pushed hard for a winning goal late into stoppage time, but FC Dallas goalkeeper Jesse González saved the point for his team with two crucial saves.

FCD DEFENSE VS. ORLANDO

FC Dallas has allowed 16 goals at home and 22 goals on the road this season and is tied with Atlanta and Columbus for 4th in MLS with 38 goals allowed—SEA (32), NYRB (32), and SKC (37) have allowed fewer. FCD (1.27) ranks sixth in goals against average, Orlando (2.28) ranks 23rd. Goalkeepers Jimmy Maurer (1.23 in 13 starts) ranks seventh and Jesse Gonzalez ranks 10th (1.38 in 17 starts) in MLS's GAA, making FCD the only team with two goalkeepers in the Top 10. Orlando's Joseph Bendik ranks 26th (2.37 GAA in 24 starts). FC Dallas ranks 22nd with 302 fouls committed (10.07 fouls per game), while Orlando is tied for 20th with 314 fouls committed (10.83 per game). Orlando has allowed 23 goals in the final 15 minutes of a match, the most in the league.

FCD'S OFFENSE VS. ORLANDO

Dallas has a winning percentage of .850 (15-1-4) when scoring first—ranking 6th in MLS. Orlando (3-2-1) ranks 21st with a winning percentage of .583 when scoring the first goal. FC Dallas ranks 17th (0-5-3) when allowing the first goal, Orlando is ranked 14th with a 4-16-2 record. Dallas ranks sixth when leading at the half (11-0-2, .923 winning percentage). Orlando (3-2-0) is 22nd with a .600 winning record.

HOMEGROWN MINUTES

FC Dallas (7,735 minutes) ranks second in Homegrown minutes behind first place New York Red Bulls (7,948 minutes). FC Dallas was the first team in MLS history to have six Homegrown Players (Jesse Gonzalez, Reggie Cannon, Victor Ulloa, Kellyn Acosta, Paxton Pomykal and Jesus Ferreira) to share the pitch at one time in the 3-1 win vs. Chicago on July 14. FCD and RSL set a MLS record with 11 Homegrown Players appearing (10 starting) in a single match on July 7, with six players from Salt Lake and five players from Dallas.

FC DALLAS' GOALSCORERS

FC Dallas extended their league lead in the number of goal-scorers to 16. FC Dallas players who have scored in 2018: Roland Lamah, Maxi Urruti, Michael Barrios, Reto Ziegler, Matt Hedges, Kellyn Acosta, Tesho Akindele, Reggie Cannon, Cristian Colmán, Mauro Díaz, Carlos Gruezo, Jacori Hayes, Santiago Mosquera, Ryan Hollingshead, Dominique Badji and Maynor Figueroa.

ON THIS DAY

FC Dallas defeated Columbus Crew SC, 3-1, on Oct. 6, 2007, the only match played on this day. Columbus took a 1-0 lead in the 31st minute, but FC Dallas answered with three goals in the 48th, 86th and 89th minute. FCD goalkeeper Ray Burse made seven saves in the first half.

REGGIE "THE CANNON"

Reggie Cannon leads in minutes for FC Dallas (2,651 minutes), playing in every match this season. Cannon became the fourth Homegrown player to reach the 2,000 minute mark for FC Dallas. FCD has now had a Homegrown player hit 2,000 minutes in five consecutive seasons: Victor Ulloa did it twice (2,365 in 2014 and 2,915 in 2015), Kellyn Acosta (2,328 in 2016) and Jesse Gonzalez (2,610 in 2017).

SET PIECES

FC Dallas scored its first set piece goal of the 2018 season on June 2 against LAFC. The goal came in the 25th minute by defender Reto Ziegler. FC Dallas scored five set piece goals in 2017, but did not score on a set piece until the eighth match of the 2017 season (this was FCD's 13th match of the 2018 season). FC Dallas has scored 12 set pieces in 2018. Of the 12, five have been game-winners and two have been draw-earning equalizers earning an additional 13 points on the year. Another two have been late-game insurance goals.

FC DALLAS' 2018 PLAYOFF RUN

ON THE LINE

On Saturday, with a win and some help, FCD can secure at least one home playoff match by eliminating themselves from contention at the No. 5 and No. 6 spots. That one home playoff match, though, is guaranteed to be with the season on the line.

A Dallas win at home over Orlando City, coupled with a non-win from Portland as they travel to face Real Salt Lake, would guarantee a top-four spot in the West come late October and would mean either hosting a Knockout Round game Oct. 31-Nov. 1 (seeds 3-4) or a more preferable Leg Two home match in the Western Conference Semifinal (seeds 1-2). Either way, Dallas would host a crucial game at Toyota Stadium.

BYE-ING FOR TOP TWO

FC Dallas is fighting for a top-two spot and avoiding the Knockout Round matches in the mid-week. The Chicago Fire did their part to help FCD over the weekend by beating an LAFC team chasing from the No. 3 seed.

To reach their next goal, Dallas likely needs six points from its final four matches, which would reach the 60-point mark. Six points from their two home games specifically - coupled with a single dropped point by LAFC over the next two weeks - would clinch it before the year's final match.

A win Saturday vs. Orlando is important regardless. A win at home over Kansas City on Oct. 21 would be huge, creating a six-point swing and setting up a Decision Day meeting between SKC and LAFC where one could knock the other out of contention for the bye.

GAMES TO WATCH

Oct. 6: Sporting KC vs. LA Galaxy

Just two points back of the top spot, any dropped points by SKC puts Dallas closer to a bye and possibly home-field advantage through the Conference Championship round.

Oct. 6: Colorado Rapids vs. LAFC

This one is a catch-22 for FCD. On one hand, LAFC dropping points is a plus in the seeding race, but already four points back, Dallas just has to match their form the rest of the way. On the other, Colorado is just one point back of Orlando City SC and, if the Rapids pass the Lions over the final weeks, Dallas' No. 3 overall pick from Colorado could slip to No. 4.

Oct. 6: Real Salt Lake vs. Portland Timbers

Both of these teams need every point possible down the stretch with the first of two meetings in the next three weekends. RSL is just two points above the playoff line and, at home, wants to take all three. Any dropped points by the Timbers could set Dallas up with a home playoff game.

Oct. 8: Seattle Sounders FC vs. Houston Dynamo

Monday Night Fútbol? Seattle is back with a vengeance after a big home win last weekend, but need to be perfect the rest of the way to stand a chance in a top-two bid. Houston getting a draw - or somehow a win - would put the Sounders almost completely in FCD's rearview.

FC DALLAS QUICK KICKS

ROAD VICTORIES

FC Dallas now has 103 MLS regular season wins all-time on the road. Dallas was the fourth team to pass the century mark behind: LA Galaxy (118), Columbus Crew SC (106) and D.C. United (101). FCD surpassed its total road wins from last season (3-8-6) in a 1-0 win vs. Minnesota United FC on June 29. FC Dallas' 6-5-4 road record this season (.533 winning percentage) is second-best in the league, behind Atlanta United FC. The most road wins in club history came in 1997 (8-8-0) – during the MLS shootout era. FC Dallas equaled the best road record outside of the shootout era with a 2-1 vs. Vancouver Whitecaps FC on Sept. 23 (previously occurred in 2007 and 2011).

SECOND HALF OF 2018 SEASON

FC Dallas surpassed its win total from last season (11) with its 12th victory vs. Sporting Kansas City on July 28. With 29 games into the season, Dallas (54 points) is ahead of the 2016 season (52 points through 30 matches) in which it claimed the MLS Supporters Shield. The 2016 team went 2-0-3 (9 points) in the final five matches of the season. FCD has scored 33 goals at Toyota Stadium every season since 2014. The team has scored 30 and is currently on pace to score 34. The franchise record for home goals scored in a season is 37, recorded during the 2000 season.

RECORD AT MIDSEASON

FC Dallas' 3-2 win against Atlanta United FC on July 4 gave the team its best record at the midway point of the season since 2005. With the midway point being 16 games that season, the team was 10-2-4 (winning percentage of .750). FCD had a 10-2-5 (winning percentage of .735) through the first 17 games. Dallas was in first place for nine weeks (since the 3-2 win vs. Atlanta) before Sporting Kansas City leaped over to take the lead on Sept. 15. Dallas is back in first place after SKC loss to Philadelphia Union, 2-0, and FC Dallas defeated Vancouver, 2-1, on Sept. 23.

ÓSCAR IN OCTOBER

Pareja has a 9-3-3 record (.700 winning percentage) for the month of October. Pareja had a 2-0-2 record in September, with wins against Houston (to win the Texas Derby) and Vancouver.

ÓSCAR HITS CENTURY MARK

Óscar Pareja won his 100th MLS regular season game and 75th with FC Dallas on Aug. 18 vs. Minnesota United FC. The win made Pareja the ninth coach to reach the century mark and the third fastest to reach 100 victories. Only Bruce Arena (188) and Bob Bradley (199) have hit 100 at a faster pace than Pareja's 228 games.

ONE-GOAL RECORD

FC Dallas (9-2-0) has gone from a .571 record in 2017 to a .818 MLS record in games decided by one goal. Portland (9-5-0) is seventh with a winning percentage of .643. FCD suffered its first loss by a single goal of the season to Seattle on Aug. 12. San Jose knocked FCD out of playoffs in 2017 with a winning percentage of .846 in matches decided by one goal.

FORTRESS FRISCO INVADED

FC Dallas' 17-game unbeaten streak came to an end on Aug. 4, 2018 in a 3-1 loss to San Jose. It is the second longest streak in franchise history, with the longest being a 19-game streak from Aug. 29, 2015 to Sept. 10, 2016.

SECONDARY TRANSFER WINDOW

FC Dallas has acquired Colorado Rapids forward Dominique Badji in exchange for Kellyn Acosta, signed defender Marquinhos Pedrosa, Chilean midfielder Pablo Aránguiz, FCD's 23rd Homegrown Thomas Roberts and former Homegrown Moises Hernandez in MLS' secondary transfer window.

TWO FULL SEASONS WITH FCD

Former FC Dallas forward Ariel Graziani (26 goals) holds the club record for the most goals scored in the first two full seasons with FC Dallas. Roland Lamah scored his eighth goal of the 2018 season to bring his total to 19 goals in his first two seasons with four games remaining in 2018. Maxi Urruti is fourth in club history with 21 goals and 11 assists. Michael Barrios is 10th in club history with 16 goals and four assists.

1. *Ariel Graziani – 26G, 13A (played eight games with the Burn in 1999. Numbers are from the combined 2000-2001 season)
2. Carlos Ruiz – 24G, 7A

HALF TIME LEAD

Since 2015, FCD has a record of 55-10-29 if leading or tied at half.

FC DALLAS QUICK KICKS

LAST TO FALL

FC Dallas was the final undefeated team remaining in MLS for a second consecutive season; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the first time in MLS history the same team had been the last to lose a match in back-to-back seasons. Dallas lost to NYCFC 3-1 on April 29, 2018. On June 23, Dallas became the last team shutout in 2018, following a 3-0 loss to New York Red Bulls. It took until June 23 for Dallas to lose its second match of the season - the longest stretch to open a season in franchise history.

IN PAPI WE TRUST

Since Óscar Pareja became the head coach in 2014, FCD is 68-3-9 when scoring at least two goals. The three losses were at LA (3-2) on Sept. 26, 2015, at SEA (3-2) on April 12, 2014 and at SJ (4-3) on Aug. 29, 2018.

FIRST GOAL WINS

Since 2015, FCD is 50-3-10 when scoring first. Dallas' only losses were a 2-1 defeat to the LA Galaxy on Aug. 15, 2015, a 4-1 loss to Minnesota United on Sept. 23, 2017 and a 4-3 loss to San Jose on Aug. 29, 2018.

BEST EVER FOR FC DALLAS

With a regular-season record of 77-46-43, Óscar Pareja has the highest winning percentage (.594) of any coach in FC Dallas history. He was signed to a long-term contract extension on March 30, 2017.

ÓSCAR ECLIPSES SCHELLAS

Pareja (77) passed Schellas Hyndman (62) for second most regular-season wins as an FC Dallas coach behind Dave Dir (81) on March 18, 2018.

WITH MAXI'S HELP

When Maxi Urruti scores or assists, FC Dallas is 31-3-9 all-time, across all competitions. In league matches since 2016, FC Dallas is 25-3-9 with Urruti scoring or assisting and 1-0-0 in playoffs. FC Dallas is 5-0-0 in CCL and USOC matches.

HOMEGROWN BUILT

With the signing of Homegrowns Brandon Servania, Kris Reaves, Jordan Cano, Chris Richards and Thomas Roberts to the 2018 roster, FC Dallas has signed 23 Homegrown player contracts, the most in the MLS.

ÓSCAR PAREJA

HEAD
COACH

Pareja was announced as the sixth FC Dallas head coach in franchise history on Jan. 10, 2014 but first joined the Dallas Burn in August of 1998. The Colombian star hung up his boots in 2005 after tallying 13 goals and 47 assists (second all-time) in a Dallas kit.

Pareja has a MLS record of 62-40-34 in four seasons, as well as an 10-2-2 record in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and 4-2-2 record in CONCACAF Champions League play.

In his third year at the helm of FC Dallas, Pareja led the club to its first title in 19 years with a domestic double. The club captured its second U.S. Open Cup title (1997, 2016) with a 4-2 victory over the New England Revolution on Sept. 13, 2016, followed by its first Supporters' Shield title after registering the best regular-season record (17-8-9 record, 60 points). FCD became the first team in league history to record consecutive 60-plus point seasons after finishing the 2015 campaign with an identical 60-point mark. For his efforts, Pareja was named the 2016 MLS Coach of the Year on Dec. 1, 2016.

MARCO FERRUZZI

ASSISTANT
COACH

Marco Ferruzzi is beginning his 14th season as an assistant coach for FC Dallas. During his tenure, Dallas has compiled a regular season record of 155-126-107 in MLS play. In addition to running training sessions and evaluating players for the first team, Ferruzzi oversees the scouting of college and youth players for the club, including the staff preparations for the annual MLS Player Combine and SuperDraft.

Ferruzzi, who also holds his USSF "A" coaching license, played his collegiate soccer at the University of North Carolina. He has served as a reserve team, pre-academy and premier team coach in the FC Dallas youth club.

Ferruzzi, 47, was selected sixth overall in the 1997 MLS Supplemental Draft by the Tampa Bay Mutiny, where he played in 19 games, registering two assists. Following his time with Tampa Bay, Ferruzzi played two seasons with the Minnesota Thunder and four seasons with the Richmond Kickers. In six seasons, Ferruzzi captained both sides to the A-League final.

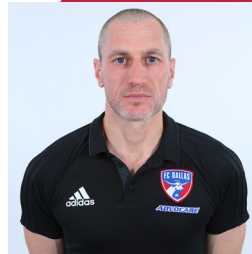

JOSEMA BAZAN

ASSISTANT
COACH

Josema Bazan was promoted to an assistant coaching position with the FC Dallas first team on Feb. 10, 2014. Bazan originally joined FC Dallas as an academy coach for the U-16 and U-18 teams on April 28, 2011, where he worked closely with current FC Dallas head coach Óscar Pareja.

A U.S. Soccer Federation "A" Licensed Coach, Bazan is a certified trainer that holds both a Director of Coaching Diploma, an Argentine Youth National Soccer Diploma and an Argentine Professional License. He has served as an assistant coach for the U-17, U-20 and full Venezuelan National Teams. Bazan coached youth soccer in Dallas for nearly 20 years before initially joining FC Dallas. He formed a youth academy named River Plate SC in Dallas in 1997 before becoming the Director of Coaching for the No. 3 ranked youth club in the U.S., Andromeda SC.

As a player, Bazan played in the U-20 World Cup for Argentina in 1991. He also played professionally in Argentina, Bolivia, Chile and Brazil from 1986 to 1996. Bazan ended his playing career in Dallas with the DFW Tornados of the then United Soccer Leagues' D3 Pro League.

DREW KEESHAN

GOALKEEPER
COACH

Drew Keeshan is entering his 11th season as FC Dallas' goalkeeper coach. He also serves as the Director of Goalkeeping for the FC Dallas Academy and played an integral role in the development of 2011 FIFA U-17 World Cup Championship goalkeeper Richard Sanchez and Mexican U-20 National Team goalkeeper Jesse Gonzalez.

Prior to joining FCD, the Tipperary, Ireland, native spent the 2007 season as an assistant coach at Clemson following a successful season in a similar role at Emory in 2006. Keeshan began his professional career with Waterford United in 1993, and then had stints at Galway United, Kilkenny City and Limerick Football Club, all in the League of Ireland. Keeshan was a part of the Galway team that earned a promotion to the Premier Division at the end of the 1998-1999 season.

Keeshan holds both a USSF "B" and USSF Goalkeeper license, and has served as an assistant for the Augusta Fireball of the PDL (2005-06), head goalkeeping coach for Georgia ODP (2002-07), and goalkeeper staff coach for ODP Region III (2004-07).
